

Night Quest

Example:

Pushing themselves off the bank, the men glanced around them. The coast was clear.

The mountains rose around them like dragons teeth, reminding them of the danger facing them. Their quest was of vital importance, but success was extremely unlikely. Saying a silent prayer to the gods of the lake, they snuffed out their lights and drifted off across the tranquil water.

The mission lay on the edge of a knife: one small mistake would be fatal...

Pupil	Success Criteria:	Teacher
	I have included noun phrases to provide description to engage the reader.
	I have used commas to separate main and subordinating clauses e.g. Crouching down in the boats, as still as statues, they waited for the creature to appear.
	I can use a range of subordinating conjunctions to join main and subordinating clauses. (until, because, while, even though, although, so...) E.g. They ventured further into the unknown because returning empty handed was not an option.

Write your own adventure narrative based on the picture above.